RESTAURANTS:

Stillwaters

Stillwaters is open daily for all-day dining. The glass-enclosed restaurant overlooks Stonewall Jackson Lake and features buffet and a la carte menu selections. Dining lakeside is available in season on the terrace patio. Boat docking is conveniently located near the restaurant.

Lightburn's

Lightburn's, the resort's newest restaurant, is located on the top level of the property's newly completed clubhouse. The 65-seat, glass-enclosed restaurant offers breathtaking views of the lodge, golf course, cottages, lake and 2,000-acre state park. The restaurant is open for lunch and dinner daily and features smoked meats (chicken, beef and ribs), great sandwiches, hearty salads and favorite libations.

T.J. Muskies Lounge

With lake views and great food and drinks, fun happens naturally in Stonewall Resort's main lounge. Patio seating is available as well along with service offered at the outdoor fire pit.

CONFERENCE:

Stonewall Resort's 22,000 square foot conference center features a state-of-the-art meetings environment with comprehensive planning and audiovisual support services. Thirteen conference rooms will accommodate groups from 3-300 persons. Each meeting room offers seven light settings, T-1 lines, climate control, ergonomic seating, projection screens built into the ceiling and state-of-the-art audiovisual capabilities including teleconferencing and live satellite feeds.

Stonewall Resort's conference center offers a conference concierge who will provide extensive secretarial services for last minute details.

In addition to the meeting rooms located in the lodge, the resort also offers a separate 7,000 square foot exhibition center.

RECREATIONAL ACTIVITIES:

The resort provides a complete fitness center featuring Cybex cardiovascular and weight training equipment, a full service spa offering more than 30 different services, indoor/outdoor pool, 3 trails offering more than 13 miles for hiking and biking, and "Resort Rascals," our children's activity program. Kayak, canoe and paddle boats are also offered along with our Library where one can cuddle up with a good book next to one of our four fireplaces.

Little Sorrel

Little Sorrel is a 75-foot, 100-passenger excursion boat offering cruises along Stonewall Jackson Lake. The two-story vessel provides an enclosed lower level featuring heating and air conditioning, bathroom facilities and seating for 60. The top level offers open air cruising as guests glide along the still waters heading north to Stonewall Jackson Dam. Two-hour cruises are offered Tuesday-Sunday each day. Private dinner cruises are offered as well.

Stonewall Jackson Lake & Marina

Twenty-six miles long with 82 miles of shoreline, Stonewall Jackson Lake is West Virginia's second largest recreational lake. The 374-slip marina offers a store, public boat launch and various models of watercraft available for rental, including four houseboats, four pontoon boats, four fishing boats, kayaks, canoes, and paddle boats.

The lake's secluded coves, private fingers and open waterways provide guests with top-notch fishing and boating opportunities and unmatched scenery and solitude. Guided fishing excursions are available.

Hunting/Wilderness Management Area

For world-class deer and turkey hunting, guests need not look any further than across the lake from Stonewall Resort. The 18,000-acre Wilderness Management Area is heavily populated with deer and turkey and is open to hunters during the appropriate seasons. Guide service is available.

Mtn. Laurel Spa

The Mtn. Laurel Spa offers four, private massage rooms and one wet treatment room. The salon features hair, manicure and pedicure stations. The fitness center includes a 500-square-foot exercise room adjacent to the indoor/outdoor pool. Both pools feature whirlpool spas. The men's and women's locker rooms each contain steam and dry saunas.

The Palmer Course At Stonewall Resort

The Palmer Course at Stonewall Resort was named to Golf Digest and Golf Magazine's "America's Best New Courses" list in 2003. The course's greens were named "Best New Greens in North America" by Seed Research magazine, the #1 publication among golf course superintendents. The course is nestled among the state park's 1,900-acre terrain, which offers rolling hills, lakeside views and elevated tees. Multiple tee boxes on every hole ensure a challenging course designed for all levels of play. Players enjoy the scenic views offered on each hole as much as the challenge.

Golf Clubhouse

Stonewall Resort's Clubhouse opened in July 2004. The two-story structure sits atop the resort's highest point. Lightburn's, the resort's newest restaurant, is located on the top level and is open for lunch and dinner daily. The professional shop is located on the lower level and features the most recent fashions and up-to-date equipment. Men's and ladies locker areas feature shower facilities and changing rooms.

MountainMade

Shopping has arrived at Stonewall Resort. MountainMade, an artisan's cooperative, features hand blown glass, skilled wood working items, quilts and much, much more. The store is located just off the main lobby and allows guests an opportunity to shop while enjoying the unique talents of West Virginia's premier artists.
